JBridge 1.5 Free Category:Audio engineering Category:Computer programming Category:Proprietary softwareGunnar Altarschulte Gunnar Altarschulte (born March 29, 1974 in Hamburg, Germany) is a German author, best known for his children's books. Gunnar is a son of German lawyer and jurist Hans-Georg Altarschulte and his wife Dr. Jutta Altarschulte, a psychoanalyst. He studied political science at the University of Hamburg from 1994 to 1999. At first Gunnar was a technical assistant in the department of political science. From 1999 he studied literature at the University of Hamburg and became a literary assistant. His first book was a short story for children, The Heroin-Knife (Der Heroin-Messer) which is about a young man, who has a bad dream about a dagger. The story was published in 2002 in the German children's book magazine Bild der Wissenschaft. Since then he has written and published novels, short story collections, plays and essays. Most of his books have been translated into English, Arabic, French, Spanish, Italian, Polish and Russian. His book Springtime is out, which was released in February 2013. It's about a five-year-old boy and his family. Its English version by Sarah Radcliffe was translated in 2014 and published in the UK by Pushkin Press. In 2015 Altarschulte's French version was released by Fayard.
